

SEXUAL VIOLENCE AND PREVENTION POLICY AND GUIDELINES.

Policy Application

The Policy applies to all members of Acupuncture College of Manitoba community, including students, staff, faculty, administrators, contract service providers, contractors, officers, directors and individuals who are directly connected to any of the student initiatives, volunteers and visitors.

Purpose and Intent

All members of Acupuncture College of Manitoba's community have a right to study and work in an environment free of sexual violence and sexual harassment.

The College recognizes that certain populations are at greater risk of sexual violence in Canada, including:

- Young women and girls
- Indigenous women
- Women living with cognitive or physical disabilities
- Individuals within the LGBT2SQ+ community
- Newcomer women and women from ethnocultural and racialized communities

We recognize that many of our students attending Private Institutions fall within these populations and we want to emphasize that it is our intent to assure a positive learning environment for all our students regardless of what population they may belong to. To address this, we have called upon members from all populations in the development of this policy.

The purpose of this policy is to articulate Acupuncture College of Manitoba's position with respect to sexual violence and establish a formal response protocol for disclosures of incidents of sexual violence.

This document sets out our policy on sexual violence and sexual harassment, defines the prohibited behaviours, and outlines our investigative processes for sexual violence and sexual harassment. The policy further outlines the procedures the institution will undertake to educate its community on avenues to prevent sexual harassment.

The Scope

The Policy applies to complaints of sexual violence or sexual harassment that have occurred on the College campus or at a College event and involve members of the College community as defined in paragraph one, the Policy Application.

Definitions

Sexual violence means any sexual act or act targeting a person's sexuality, gender identity or gender expression — whether the act is physical or psychological in nature — that is committed, threatened or attempted against a person without the person's consent, and includes sexual assault, sexual harassment, stalking, indecent exposure, voyeurism and sexual exploitation.

Definition of Sexual Misconduct

This Policy prohibits sexual misconduct, which includes sexual violence and sexual harassment.

Sexual Violence, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, includes:

- sexual assault which is any type of an unwanted sex act done by one person to another, without that person's consent, that violates the sexual integrity of an individual ranging from unwanted conversations, touching to penetration;
- any violence, physical or psychological, carried out through sexual means or by targeting sexuality, including sexual abuse; and
- criminal harassment (including stalking and cyber bullying).

Sexual Harassment, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, includes:

Any course of vexatious comment or conduct of a sexual nature that is known or ought reasonably to have been known to be unwelcome, including:

- Offensive jokes or comments of a sexual nature;
- Displaying of pornographic or sexist pictures or materials, including online;
- Suggestive or offensive remarks;
- Unwelcome language related to gender;
- Remarks, jokes, innuendoes, propositions, or taunting about a person's body, attire, sex or sexual orientation;
- Leering or inappropriate staring;
- Bragging about sexual prowess;
- Physical contact such as touching, patting, or pinching, with an underlying sexual connotation; and
- Sexual solicitation or advance made by a person in a position to confer, grant or deny a benefit or advancement to the person where the person making the solicitation or advance knows or ought reasonably to know that it is unwelcome.

Consent

Consent is central to sexual assault. The Criminal Code of Canada defines consent as it relates to sexual assault as the voluntary agreement to engage in sexual activity. An individual must actively and willingly give consent to sexual activity. Simply stated, sexual activity without consent is sexual assault.

Young people, like many others, often do not fully understand consent and can feel that the line between consensual sexual acts and sexual assault can be unclear. This is particularly true when an acquaintance, friend, or partner is the perpetrator.

Consenting to one kind, or instance, of sexual activity does not mean that consent is given to any other sexual activity or instance. No one consents to being sexually assaulted.

Where consent does not exist (lack of agreement): a person can express a lack of agreement verbally or through conduct (such as physically resisting advances). The Criminal Code makes it clear that a person can, after initially giving consent to engage in sex, revoke consent at any time by expressing a lack of agreement to continue engaging in sexual activity.

In other words, consent:

- Is never assumed or implied
- Is not silence or the absence of “no”
- Cannot be given if the victim is impaired by alcohol or drugs, or is unconscious
- Can never be obtained through threats or coercion
- Can be revoked at any time
- Cannot be obtained if the perpetrator abuses a position of trust, power or authority

It is not for the institution to weigh or determine whether or not consent has been given. This purpose of the policy is not to examine or investigate sexual assault allegations, but rather to inform all members of the college community of their responsibility to eliminate harassment and inform victims of their rights.

For more information on consent, please refer to <http://www.gov.mb.ca/youarenotalone/consent.html>
